5

Abstract of the Disclosure:

In order to capture utilization charges in a packet data transmission network, a recording is made of the charges that become payable during the course of a transmission session, when a threshold charge-total is reached. It is preferable if the value of the threshold charge-total varies depending on the data speed of the transmission session.

WHS:tk - 00p1757F//4/17/2001